

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

when you are not living in a reception centre

If, as an asylum seeker, you are not living in a reception centre (noshow), you can get medical assistance. Fedasil will pay the costs.

What is medical assistance?

- A visit to the doctor or dentist
- A medical examination at the doctor's request
- Medication on doctor's prescription (pharmacist)
- Other medical visits

How do you ask Fedasil for medical assistance?

1. A few days before you visit the doctor, hospital or pharmacist, you or the doctor must submit an application to the Fedasil Medical Costs Unit via the online form (English, French or Dutch).

What information do you need to fill in?

- Full name
- Date of birth
- OV-number or national number (you find the numbers on top of the document of the Immigration Office)
- The name of the doctor/hospital /pharmacy and the prescription
- E-mail address
- Phone number
- Date of your appointment

2. Ask somebody or a voluntary organization to help you if you do not understand English, French or Dutch or if you do not have access to internet.
3. Fedasil will examine whether it will pay the costs.
4. If Fedasil agrees to pay the medical costs, you will receive by email a document called requisitorium.
5. You take the requisitorium document with you when you visit the doctor, hospital or pharmacist.
6. After your visit Fedasil will pay the medical costs.

More information?

Fedasil Medical Costs Unit

Available by phone Monday to Friday, 9am to 12pm.

02/213 43 00 (NL)

02/213 43 25 (FR)

By email: medic@fedasil.be

Information for asylum seekers in Belgium

www.fedasilinfo.be

www.asyluminbelgium.be